15.Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

Although our institution is located in an underdeveloped region, it provides students with access to higher education at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels in CBCS (Choice Based Credit System) mode, offering multiple courses that cater to the aspirations of the student community. The institution's vision is centered on the holistic development and advancement of learners, a goal consistently supported and monitored by the teaching faculty. We are committed to fostering value-based education and promoting rational thinking. Students are equipped with a wide range of skills through practical experiences, not just theoretical knowledge. We emphasize entrepreneurship and moral-based education to shape responsible citizens who uphold national integrity. We believe that genuine learning is a continuous process, and we encourage students to embrace challenges and celebrate their achievements. Holistic education is a key component of our approach, addressing both academic and social needs through programs like NCC and NSS, which help students gain societal awareness. The introduction of computer-related courses, data sciences, and applied mathematics into the curriculum places our students at the forefront of real-world competition. By leveraging cutting-edge teaching methods such as digital instruction, the institution invites renowned educationists and industry experts to inspire and broaden students' thinking. Our curriculum fosters an environment that enhances students' critical thinking, positive social behaviors, and prepares them for success in a rapidly evolving world.

16.Academic bank of credits (ABC):

Our institution is well-prepared to embrace new perspectives and challenges brought by the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. In particular, we are committed to implementing the Academic Bank of Credits (ABC) to provide students with the flexibility of multiple entry and exit options, which will be rolled out soon. Each department has been allocated academic space to design new curricula that align with the needs and aspirations of our students. By offering multiple programs tailored to student preferences, our college empowers students to make choices that best suit their interests. The process of curriculum design and content updating is ongoing, with faculty continuously refining and incorporating advancements into the Board of Studies (BoS). Faculty are granted academic freedom within the autonomous framework of the institution, ensuring the syllabus is designed in a way that aligns with academic goals and institutional standards. Throughout the academic year, students are guided and encouraged to complete various tasks such as assignments, student seminars, group discussions, and debates. Faculty members conduct evaluations in both online and offline formats, encompassing both formative and summative assessments.

17.Skill development:

To enhance students' learning and soft skills, our institution has introduced certificate courses that boost their confidence and enable them to earn while they learn. Each department has established additional resources to develop and implement professional courses, such as Beautician courses, Language Skills courses, and Creative Writing courses. These courses provide both theoretical knowledge and hands-on experience. This initiative aligns with the National Skills Qualifications Framework (NSQF), and these programs are integrated with mainstream academic programs. To promote societal awareness and value-based learning, the institution offers subjects like Gender Sensitization, Cultural Studies, and Human Values Studies across various semesters. Through the Telangana Skills and Knowledge Centre (TSKC), students are provided with multiple training programs over the course of three years. Upon completion, they receive certificates with grades, affirming their successful participation in specific training modules. In fostering essential computer literacy, 'Basics of Computer Skills' is a common course for all first- and second-year undergraduate students. Additionally, the college offers a curriculum-embedded, two-credit Soft Skills program for undergraduate students, which is taught during regular classes. Language skills are developed through a comprehensive approach that includes listening, speaking, reading, and writing. To support the teaching-learning process, students have access to online resources, lectures, motivational talks, educational videos, and web-based references. The institution has also installed Wi-Fi across the campus to facilitate and support educational activities for all students.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Our institution integrates Indian languages and their cultural heritage into both offline and online curricula. As native speakers of Telugu, the Department of Telugu collaborates with other departments to promote the vernacular language. Although many students study in the English medium, they are encouraged to learn Telugu in-depth to gain a comprehensive understanding of the cultural perspective. We inspire students to undertake projects like *'Mana Ooru Mana Charithra'* (Our Village – Our History), an initiative supported by the Telangana Government. To support this, we organize essay writing competitions, assignments, and seminars in the vernacular language. Additionally, our institution offers courses with Urdu as a medium of instruction, and many students have chosen Urdu for their studies. The Departments of English, Telugu, Urdu, and Hindi work collectively to integrate Indian knowledge and culture. We facilitate bilingual teaching methods, such as English-Telugu, English-Urdu, and Hindi-Telugu, providing students with diverse learning opportunities. To promote a better convergence of disciplines and offer academic flexibility, both at the institutional and departmental levels, we offer common courses on Environmental Studies, Human Values & Professional Ethics, Gender Sensitization, Indian Heritage & Culture, Science and Civilization, and Youth Development. These courses provide a holistic perspective on cross-cutting issues, enabling students to embrace and imbibe essential values.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Learning resources and useful websites are made available on the college website, serving as a convenient portal for accessing information and gaining knowledge. Our institution is fully committed to outcome-based education, ensuring that both teachers and learners have a clear understanding of the objectives to be achieved at each stage, thus promoting student progression. The Programme Outcomes (POs) and Course Outcomes (COs) are formulated to achieve Graduate Attributes, aligning with the college's vision and mission. Programme Educational Objectives (PEOs) and Programme Outcomes (POs) are developed based on the skills, attitudes, and knowledge students are expected to acquire in their respective programs. Course Outcomes (COs) are designed to reflect the knowledge students will gain and apply by the end of each course. These PEOs, POs, and COs are thoroughly discussed in Board of Studies meetings, where faculty members contribute their insights and collaborate to refine the outcomes. Once finalized, the PSOs, POs, and COs are approved by the Board of Studies and subsequently passed in the Academic Council meeting. Course Outcomes are mapped to Programme Outcomes to ensure alignment. The mapping process, which includes establishing a value base for the program, developing a conceptual framework, determining program goals, designing the program, and implementing assessment procedures, begins during lesson planning. Learning Outcomes (LOs), which represent the skill sets acquired by students at the end of each unit, are directly linked to the COs and POs, ensuring comprehensive and structured progression throughout the program.

20.Distance education/online education:

At M.V.S. Government Arts and Science College, information and communication technology (ICT) has become an integral part of the teaching, learning, and evaluation processes. Faculty development programs (FDPs) are conducted each semester to train faculty members in the effective use of ICT tools in the classroom. Course-related materials, video lectures, and other resources are made available through Google Classroom, which also serves as a platform for students to submit assignments, video lectures, and activity reports. Faculty utilize Google Classroom to create interactive learning activities such as puzzles, crosswords, cloze tests, and multiple-choice questions, enhancing student engagement. A Management Information System (MIS) is employed to maintain accurate records of each student's personal and academic information, attendance, Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) scores, and fee payment details. Additionally, the MIS serves as a faculty record book, consolidating all course-related information. The college is a member of the National Digital Library (NDL) and N-List, providing students with access to a wide range of digital publications and research papers. The college library also offers CDs of live lectures delivered by renowned professors from prestigious institutions, such as the IITs. Students have unlimited access to the library's collection of e-books and e-journals, with numerous research papers and journals available through EBSCO. Accuracy and credibility are key in delivering and teaching course content. Faculty members rely on EBSCO to provide students with research-based, reliable information. An interactive discussion board enables students to share their codes, participate in challenges, and get their questions answered. The college also uses Google Forms to collect data from all departments, conduct surveys, and gather evaluation feedback and reviews.

need assessment by faculties, the college assesses the local, regional, national, and global needs of the society.

The whole process of need identification is carried out by the departments in adherence to the common pattern prescribed by the college. The special features of the school system such as Self finance courses, Interdisciplinary courses, Mandatory internship and Project work, Skill Based Electives, Core Electives, choices in core subjects in select departments and extra credit courses ensure that the curriculum stays relevant and meets the dynamic needs of the society at large.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes as evaluated by the institution

The college offers various programs with clearly defined outcomes. Program Specific Objectives (PSOs), Programme Outcomes (POs), and Course Outcomes (COs) are related to each other. After completing a three-year degree course, students achieved program outcomes. Program-specific outcomes are validated by a systematic process of collecting and evaluating data on Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes. The calculation of the level of attainment of Programme Outcomes is done by mapping the CO and PO matrix. Method of measuring attainment of Cos: The Course Outcomes are stated in the syllabus of each course. Allied subjects are also presented with appropriate Course Outcomes. Course Outcome measurement is made through direct and indirect methods. The measurement of Course Outcome using the direct method is derived from the marks scored by students in assignment, activity, seminar, Internal I, II, and end-semester examinations. Direct Method: The instructors of the courses become familiar with the courses' objectives. The questions are leveled appropriately. Bloom's taxonomy of cognitive abilities: (mental abilities -Knowledge), Affective: a boost in one's emotions. Psychomotor and physical abilities necessary for internal and end-of-semester exams.
